(2) The Chairperson shall, at the written request of the Executive Director or not less than five members of the Board, convene a special meeting of the Board to transact any extra-ordinary business on a date specified in the request.

(3) A written notice of a special meeting of the Board shall:

(a) be sent to each member not later than forty-eight hours before the meeting; and

(b) specify the business for which the meeting is being convened.

(4) The quorum of the Board at any meeting shall be seven, including the Chairperson or the Executive Director.

(5) The Board shall take decisions by a simple majority of the votes of members present and, where there is an equality of votes, the person presiding shall have a casting vote.
(6) The Chairperson shall preside at every meeting of the Board, at which he or she is present, and in his or her absence, the Vice-Chairperson shall preside and, where both the Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson are absent, the members of the Board present shall appoint one of their number to preside at the meeting.

(7) The minutes of every meeting of the Board shall be recorded by the Secretary, and signed by the Chairperson or the person who presided at the meeting, after confirmation by the Board.

(8) The Board may at any time co-opt a person to be an adviser at any of its meetings, but a person so co-opted is not entitled to vote at any meeting of the Board.

(9) The Board may appoint such committees as it considers necessary to carry out, on its behalf, such of its functions as it may determine, but a decision of a committee so appointed has no effect unless it is confirmed by the Board.

(10) The validity of the proceeding of the Board is not affected by-

(a) a vacancy in its membership;

(b) a defect in the appointment of any of its members; or

(c) reason that a person not entitled to do so, took part in the proceedings.

(11) Subject to this section, the Board may regulate its own procedure.
9. If the office of Executive Director is vacant or the Executive Director is for any reason unable to attend a meeting of the Board, the person for the time being carrying out the duties of the Executive Director shall attend the meeting and may participate in its deliberations.

10. (1) A member of the Board who has an interest in a company or an undertaking with which the Agency proposes to enter into a contract shall—

(a) disclose to the Board the nature of his or her interest; and

(b) not participate in any deliberation and voting of the Board in respect of the contract.

(2) The President may, on the recommendation of the Secretary of State, remove from the Board a member who contravenes the provisions of subsection (1).

11. A resolution is a valid resolution of the Board if—

(a) it is signed or assented to by a majority of the members; and

(b) notice of the proposed resolution was given to each member and to the Executive Director, notwithstanding that it was not passed at a meeting of the Board.

12. No action, suit, prosecution or other proceeding shall be brought or instituted against a member of the Board personally in respect of any thing done by him or her in good faith in pursuance, execution or intended execution of any of the provisions of this Act.
13. A member of the Board and a person co-opted to the Board shall be paid such allowances as the Secretary of State may approve.

(3) A commercial carrier which contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of not less than fifty thousand dalasis and not exceeding five hundred thousand dalasis.

34. (1) It is the duty of every tour operator and travel agent to-

(a) notify its clients of their obligation under this Act and not to aid, abet, facilitate or promote in any way trafficking in persons;

(b) notify their clients of their obligation under this Act not to aid, abet, facilitate or promote in any way child pornography and other forms of child exploitation in tourism;

(c) refrain from facilitating in any way, contact between tourists and possible child sex exploiters and direct contact between tourists and children having as an objective sexual exploitation;
(d) ensure, as much as possible, that no contacts or encounters are made between tourists and exploiters and children within the frame work of sexual exploitation;

(e) insert in contracts with corresponding suppliers in destination countries clauses requiring them to comply with the obligations stated in paragraphs (a) to (d);

(f) refrain from utilising messages on printed material, video or the internet that could suggest or allude to behavior incompatible with the objectives of this Act;

(g) inform its staff of their obligations under this Act; and

(h) include clauses regarding the obligations to its staff under this Act in new employment contracts.

(2) A tour operator, travel agent or any other person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of not less than fifty thousand dalasis and not exceeding five hundred thousand dalasis.

35. (1) Where a person is charged with an offence under this Act and the evidence establishes an attempt to commit that offence, he or she may be convicted of having attempted to commit that offence although the attempt is not separately charged and the person shall be punished as prescribed for the offence under this Act.
(2) Where a person is charged with an attempt to commit an offence under this Act, but the evidence establishes the commission of the full offence, the offender shall not be entitled to acquittal but shall be convicted of the offence and punished as provided under this Act.

36. (1) A court in The Gambia has jurisdiction to try an offence under this Act where the act constituting the offence has been carried out-

(a) wholly or partly in The Gambia;

(b) anywhere, by a citizen of The Gambia or by a person who is ordinarily resident in The Gambia;

(c) by a person on board a vessel or aircraft registered in The Gambia.

(2) A court in The Gambia also has jurisdiction to try an offence under this Act where-

(a) the victim of trafficking is a citizen of, or is ordinarily resident in, The Gambia; or

(b) the trafficker is present in The Gambia and is not extradited.

37. In a trial of an offence under this Act, the fact that an accused person-

(a) is in possession of pecuniary resources or property for which he or she cannot satisfactorily account and which is disproportionate to his or her known sources of income; or
(b) had at or about the time of the alleged offence obtained an accretion to his or her pecuniary resources or property for which he or she cannot satisfactorily account, may be proved and taken into consideration by the court as corroborating the testimony of any witness in the trial.

38. In a prosecution for trafficking under this Act-

(a) the consent of a victim of trafficking to the intended or realized exploitation is irrelevant where any of the means specified in section 28 (2) and (3) has been used;

(b) the past sexual behaviour of a victim of trafficking is irrelevant and inadmissible for the purpose of proving that he or she was engaged in other sexual behaviour or to prove his or her sexual predisposition;

(c) the recruitment, transportation, transfer, harbouring or receipt of a child for purpose of exploitation shall be regarded as trafficking in persons even if it does not involve any of the means specified in section 28 (2) or (3);

(d) the legal age of consent to sex, legal age of marriage or other discretionary age is not a defence to trafficking.
39. (1) When an offence under this Act is committed in a place outside The Gambia by a citizen of, or by a person granted permanent residence in, The Gambia, he or she shall be dealt with in respect of the offence as if it was committed at a place within The Gambia.

(2) The Agency has the power to engage the service of any local or international institution, body or person possessing special knowledge or skill on the detection of trafficking across international borders and the tracing of properties connected with trafficking.

40. Where a person volunteers to the Agency, or an official of the Agency, or police, any information which may be-

(a) useful in the investigation of an offence under this Act; or

(b) helpful in tracing the proceeds of trafficking in persons and the other offences under this Act, the Agency, official or police shall take all reasonable measures to protect the identity of that person, and the information so volunteered shall be treated as confidential.

41. Where an offence under this Act which has been committed by a body corporate is proved to have been committed on the instigation or with the connivance of or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of —
(a) a director, a manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate; or

(b) any person purporting to act in that capacity, he or she, as well as the body corporate, where practicable, is deemed to have committed that offence and is liable to be prosecuted and punished accordingly.

PART VIII – COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE AND ARREST

42. (1) Without prejudice to the power of the police under this Act or the Criminal Procedure Act, a victim of trafficking or any other person who has information about trafficking may file a complaint with the police or other security services at the place where-

(a) the offender resides;

(b) the victim resides;

(c) the trafficking occurred or is occurring; or

(d) the victim is residing temporarily, if the victim has left his or her normal place of residence.

(2) Where a victim of trafficking is, for any reason, unable to file a complaint personally, a member of his or her family or any person with knowledge of the offence may file a complaint on behalf of the victim.
(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a social welfare officer, probation officer, health care provider, teacher or any other person may file a complaint under this section if it is in the best interest of the victim of trafficking to do so.

(4) Where a person who could have been a complainant under this Act has died, the complaint may be made by a person with knowledge of the offence.

43. (1) A police officer may arrest a person for trafficking with a warrant issued in pursuance of this Act or without a warrant.

(2) A police officer may arrest a person for trafficking without a warrant where-

(a) an act of trafficking is committed in the presence of the officer;

(b) the police officer is obstructed by the person in the execution of police duties; or

(c) the person has escaped or attempts to escape from lawful custody.

(3) A police officer may arrest without warrant on reasonable grounds of suspicion where a person-

(a) has committed an offence of trafficking; or

(b) is about to commit an offence of trafficking and there is no other way to prevent the commission of the offence; or

(c) is willfully obstructing the police officer in the execution of police duties.
44. (1) A private person may arrest a person without warrant-

(a) if the person commits the offence of trafficking in the presence of the private person; or

(b) where the private person has reasonable suspicion that the person has committed the offence of trafficking.

(2) A private person who arrests a person shall, without unnecessary delay, immediately hand over the person to a police officer or, where a police officer is not available, take the person to the nearest police station.

PART IX – TREATMENT OF VICTIMS OF TRAFFICKING

45. (1) The Agency, police and other authority, involved with the care and protection of victims of trafficking, shall ensure that-

(a) a victim of trafficking is not subjected to discriminatory treatment in practice on account of race, colour, gender, sexual orientation, age, language, religion, political or other opinion, cultural beliefs or practices, national, ethnic or social origin, property, birth or other status, including his or her status as a victim of trafficking or having worked in the sex industry;

(b) a victim of trafficking has access to adequate health, legal, psychological and other social services during the period of temporary residence;
(c) a victim of trafficking has access to the embassy or consulate of the country of which he or she is a citizen or, if there is no embassy or consulate, ensure that the person has access to the diplomatic representative of the State that takes charge of the country’s interest or any national or international authority whose task is to protect him or her;

(d) a victim of trafficking is able to return home safely, if he or she so wishes and when he or she is able to do so;

(e) a victim of trafficking is not denied temporary residence visa during the period the criminal, civil or other legal action is pending;

(f) investigation, detection, gathering and interpretation of evidence are conducted in such a manner as to minimize intrusion into the personal history of a victim of trafficking;

(g) the name of a victim of trafficking is not disclosed recklessly where the person is trafficked into the sex industry;

(h) the use by a person, of another person’s history of being trafficked to discriminate or cause harm to a victim of trafficking or his or her friends in any way whatsoever, particularly with regard to the right to freedom of movement, marriage or search for gainful employment, is not encouraged;
(i) a victim of trafficking has access to Non-Governmental Organizations and other authorized institutions that provide rehabilitation services or counseling to victims of trafficking;

(j) the safety, identity, privacy and integrity of a victim of trafficking and witnesses are protected and not subordinated to the interests of the prosecution, including before, during, and after all criminal, civil or other legal proceedings; and

(k) a victim of trafficking is protected from intimidation, reprisals or threats of reprisals from traffickers and their associates, including reprisals from persons in position of authority.

(2) The Department of State, the Department of Social Welfare, the Department of Immigration and other relevant Departments and agencies shall cooperate to ensure the smooth and voluntary repatriation of victims of trafficking.

46. Proceedings conducted pursuant to this Act shall be conducted in such manner that will not be detrimental or prejudicial to the rights of the victim of trafficking and are consistent with the psychological and physical safety of a victim of trafficking and witnesses.

47. A victim of trafficking who is subjected to, and is a witness of, sexual violence may be permitted to present evidence in camera after taking into consideration all the circumstances of the case.
48. The accused or a defendant, as the case may be, shall not introduce as a defence evidence of the personal history or the current or previous occupation of a victim of trafficking.

49. Where the circumstances so justify, a victim of trafficking shall not be detained, imprisoned or prosecuted for offences related to being a victim of trafficking, including non-possession of valid travel documents or use of a false travel or other documents.

50. A victim of trafficking, irrespective of his or her immigration status—

(a) has the right to bring civil action against a trafficker and any other person, including a public officer, who have exploited or abused him or her; and

(b) is entitled to compensation, restitution and recovery for economic, physical and psychological damages to be met from the assets of the convicted trafficker.

51. The Department of Social Welfare shall provide—

(a) temporary basic material support for the care and protection of a rescued victim of trafficking; and

(b) counseling services for the victim of trafficking to assist him or her with the rehabilitation and reintegration.

52. (1) The Department of Social Welfare shall be assisted by the police, and any other person, to trace the family of a victim of trafficking.
(2) The views of the victim of trafficking shall be taken into consideration in connection with family reunification.

(3) A person who has information which may assist with the tracing of the family of a victim of trafficking shall provide the information to the Department of Social Welfare or the police.

(4) A person who contravenes subsection (3) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of not less than ten thousand dalasis and not exceeding fifty thousand dalasis or imprisonment for a term of not less than twelve months and not exceeding three years.

53. (1) The Department of Social Welfare shall assist in providing a rescued victim of trafficking with employable skills and employment opportunities.

(2) A victim of trafficking may receive financial assistance from the Trafficking in Persons Fund and other Departments of State, and government agencies concerned with rehabilitation and reintegration of victims of trafficking.

54. (1) A person convicted of the offence of trafficking may be ordered by the court to pay compensation to the victim of the trafficking.

(2) A person who, in pursuit of trafficking, causes injury to another person may be ordered to pay compensation to the injured person.

(3) The payment of compensation may be in addition to any other punishment.
PART X – APPLICATION OF CERTAIN ENACTMENTS

55. The offences under this Act shall, for the purposes of the Extradition Act, be regarded as extraditable offences under that Act, and accordingly, a request for the extradition for an offender is subject to the Extradition Act.

56. (1) This Act shall be read as one with the Children’s Act, 2005.

(2) Notwithstanding section 269 of the Children’s Act, 2005, where a provision of this Act conflicts with that of the Children’s Act, the provision of this Act shall prevail and that other provision shall, to the extent of the inconsistency, be void.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), a matter concerning the care and protection of a trafficked child or any other matter for which the Children’s Court has jurisdiction shall be referred to the Children’s Court established under the Children’s Act, 2005 to be dealt with under that Act.

57. Where an offence created under this Act is also an offence under the Criminal Code, an offender shall be tried and punished under the provisions of this Act.

PART XI – FUND FOR VICTIMS OF TRAFFICKING

58. There is hereby established a fund to be known as the Fund for Victims of Trafficking, the management and control of which is, subject to the provisions of this Act, vested in the Agency.
59. The moneys for the Fund for Victims of Trafficking shall consist of-

(a) moneys appropriated by the National Assembly for payment into the Fund;

(b) voluntary contributions to the Fund from individuals and organisations;

(c) donations, gifts and grants from bilateral and multilateral sources;

(d) proceeds from the confiscation of property connected with trafficking; and

(e) such other moneys as may accrue to the Fund from other sources.

60. The money in the Fund for Victims of Trafficking shall be applied as follows -

(a) towards the basic material support of victims of trafficking;

(b) for the training of victims of trafficking in skills;

(c) for tracing the families of victims of trafficking;

(d) towards the construction of reception shelters for victims of trafficking;

(e) for any matter connected with the rescue, rehabilitation, reintegration and repatriation, of victims of trafficking; and
(f) for training and capacity building of persons connected with the rescue, rehabilitation and reintegration of victims of trafficking.

61. (1) No expenditure shall be made from the Trafficking in Persons Fund unless the Board approves it.

(2) The Board shall not approve expenditure for purposes other than those specified in section 60.

62. A report of every exercise of the Agency’s power under this Part of this Act shall be included in the annual report which the Agency is required to submit to the Secretary of State.

63. (1) The Agency shall cause proper books of accounts and other records to be kept in connection with the Trafficking in Persons Fund.

(2) The Auditor General shall audit the accounts of the Trafficking in Persons Fund.

64. The Agency may-

(a) invest any money of the Trafficking in Persons Fund in such manner as the Board may determine; and

(b) vary and diversify investments as the Board may also determine.

PART XII – MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

65. A person who-

(a) willfully obstructs the Agency or any authorized officer of the Agency in the exercise of any of the powers conferred on the Agency by this Act; or
(b) fails to comply with any lawful direction or requirement made by the Agency or an authorized officer of the Agency under the provisions of this Act, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine of not less than ten thousand dalasis and not exceeding fifty thousand dalasis or imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both the fine and imprisonment.

66. (1) The Secretary of State may, from time to time, give general policy guidelines to the Agency.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of the provisions of subsection (1), the Secretary of State may give to the Agency directives of a general nature or specific directive relating generally to a particular matter or case, as the case may be.

(3) The Agency shall comply with any policy guideline or directive given by the Secretary of State under subsection (1) or (2).

67. No legal proceedings, civil or criminal, shall be instituted against an officer of the Agency or any other person assisting an officer of the Agency for any act which is done in good faith or for any omission made in good faith by the officer or other person.

68. (1) A person who, in acting or purporting to act, as another person's employer, manager, supervisor, contractor, employment agent, or solicitor of clients (such as a pimp), knowingly procures, destroys, conceals, removes, confiscates, or possesses, any passport, immigration document or other Government identification document, whether actual or purported belonging to another person, for any purpose connected with Act, commits an offence.

(2) A person who commits an offence under subsection (1) is liable on conviction to a fine of not less than fifty thousand dalasis and not exceeding one hundred thousand dalasis or to imprisonment term of not exceeding five years, or to both the fine and imprisonment.

69. (1) Where there is evidence that movable or immovable property has been acquired by a trafficker as a result of gains from trafficking activity, the court shall order the confiscation of the property.

(2) The court may make such order as it considers appropriate in connection with the confiscated property and may direct that the proceeds of the confiscated property be paid into the Trafficking in Persons Fund.

(3) In this section, "property" includes property within and outside The Gambia.

70. (1) The Secretary of State may, on the recommendation of the Agency, make regulations for the proper implementation of the provisions of this Act.

(2) Without prejudice to subsection (1), the Secretary of State may make regulations for-

(a) the training of the personnel needed to combat trafficking;
(b) the skills training, care and protection of victims of trafficking;

(c) the collection of data and exchange of information on trafficking in persons;

(d) the rescue, rehabilitation, reintegration and voluntary repatriation of victims of trafficking; and

(e) skills training to include formal education for child victims.
